

Why People Donated to the Sculpture

I am donating to help keep the importance of green finance in clear view and to honour the memory of Tessa Tennant, who was a real inspiration to me as well as being a wise and trusted colleague.

Euan Forbes

In loving memory of Tessa. Alan Brown

In loving memory of dear Tessa Tennant, whose memory inspires me deeply, always. Just as I like to imagine Tessa keeping a watchful eye on all I get up to, I'd love to imagine a sculpture keeping her watchful eye on everyone working in the City. Dave Hampton

In co-operation and in memory of Tessa. Ed Mayo

In sad but wonderful memory of working with Tessa! Lawrence Edmans

To promote Tessa Tennant's work towards make sustainable economies a reality. Tracey Worcester

I am a friend of Tessa's and share her vision of this sculpture, but as I am living on a pension. Sorry not to give more. Fiona Martynoga

Because Tessa hugely inspired me, and I want to help her inspire others. Jenny McInnes

Tessa inspired many actions and people: this is a great idea to help ensure continued inspiration and relevance for private finance to be central to sustainable development. Robert Barker

Tessa was such an incredible, warm and compassionate person. The sculpture will be an amazing legacy for those who will remember her and those she will inspire in the future. Emily Farnworth

With love and appreciation for all that you have done to create a sustainable world. Your legacy will live on through CDP, this sculpture and many other organisations and people. Paul Simpson

In Honour of dear Tessa - friend, mentor, always urging us to do more. Tough and fair. Loud laugh and roar. Never forgotten. Always inspiring. Rachel Kyte

Thank you for this wonderful initiative. Lowri Brown

If the piece can reach though to the humanity of investors as people - helping them to recognise the things that really matters in life, we might just be able to start to build the kind of world we want our children to inherit. Julia Dreblow

In loving memory of Tessa and all her brilliant work. Julia Hill

It is a great pleasure to support this project and I wish you a swift and easy progress towards your targets. Hannah Pearce

I worked with Tessa from 1987. She constantly inspired my 30 years in the field of SRI, upon which the future of the human race depends. What mission could be more important than the flourishing of the human species? Giles Chitty

What a great way to remember the huge impact of Tessa's work in making our world a better place to live. Nigel Parsons

In memory of our much-loved Tessa. Peter Head

As a fellow team colleague of Tessa Tennant at Jupiter when green funds were launched, I witnessed her passion for this new revolution in green finance. Tessa passion was enhanced by her humour and boundless energy. Very much loved and missed. Cynthia Pinniger

A fabulously sustainable idea to mark the life of a pioneer - well done. Edward Mallinckrodt

Donation to honour Tessa Tennant! Maria Ivanova

To pass on Tessa's message of global stewardship to London and the rest of the world. Als Scrope

Tessa was a good friend and campaigner and we knew each other through her work and mine as a journalist. Paul Brown

Recognising and celebrating the extraordinary vision and energy of Tessa Tennant and friends in the green finance world. Camilla Toulmin

Given to recognize Tessa Tennant's inspired contribution to making the world a better place by enabling money to do better things. Chris Rose

For Tessa. For green. For ethical investment. For a better world. Looking forward to seeing what emerges. Julia Hailes

In memory of Tessa Tennant - friend, collaborator, inspiration and mentor. Long may her drive, energy and charm inspire others to continue her work. Long may her legacy live. Philip Whalley

My donation is in memory of a dear friend and inspiration - Tessa Tennant. Alya Kayal

In recognition of Tessa's lifelong contribution to green finance. Peter Knott

In recognition of Tessa's

A contribution to the establishment of a green finance sculpture - particularly in memory of Tessa Tennant - a great pioneer of green investment. Martin Gillett

The multi-faith OurVoices and GreenFaith family loved Tessa very much and miss her deeply. Rev. Fletcher Harper

With many thanks to Tessa. Takejiro Sueyoshi

In memory of Tessa - and to continue her work. Robin Bidwell

I'm contributing in memory of Tessa and love for her! It is also made to as a celebration of her huge contribution to sustainable finance over the years. The sculpture can help create a visual and permanent reminder of Tessa's life work. Amal Amin

With all my support for a fitting memorial to Tessa and to celebrate the growth of Green Finance. Charles Millar

This is in memory of Tessa, whom we both loved. Hugh Raven

Personal donation in memory of a pioneer I got to know a little over the years. Ben Ridley

In Memoriam DEREK CHILDS (1933-1991), who co-founded the Merlin Ecology Fund with Tessa Tennant in 1988. Jane Childs

I loved and worked with Tessa. I see the financial markets as our biggest challenge. And I see such a sculpture as a way of celebrating progress to date and signalling the need for a lot more. John Elkington

For a very special Tessa's sculpture. Meryam Omi

In celebration of Tessa. Stephen Moir

In memory of a very dear friend and mentor. Tim Fiennes & James

Tessa came down from heaven to light up the world and protect the earth. Paul Clement

With love and gratitude to Tessa Tennant for inspiring a generation of financiers to step up on climate action and make finance a force for good. Ingrid Holmes

Good luck with the project in such a good cause. A wonderful memorial to our dear friend Tessa. Robin Grove-White

This is in memory of the wonderful Tessa Tennant. Stephen Joseph

Thank you so much for taking this excellent idea forward. Tessa was a huge inspiration to me personally. Whether or not they know it, an entire generation of responsible investment professionals owe their career to her. Tessa should be very proud. Steve Waygood

Inspiring the long-term vision to tackle climate change takes all kinds of strategies. A sculpture can jolt thinking and contemplation - and is just the kind of idea which is a fitting legacy for Tessa. Rebecca Lawrence

Great initiative - we need visual reminders of the importance of green (& social) finance in the heart of our financial centres to inspire and educate. Malini Mehra

Thank you, Tessa for making a lasting impact in the world on sustainable finance, social investment and climate change. I will always remember your spirit and energy in making a difference in the world. Feini Tung

Remembering a remarkable person who made a real difference- to us personally and to the world. Jane Anderson

Tessa's vision and drive will live on in many ways, and a beautiful symbol of how money can help secure all our futures will be a brilliant addition. Alex Wilks